

Try one thing: Online entertainment

Watching videos

There are lots of ways to find entertainment online. One place is YouTube.

YouTube is a video sharing website that makes it easy to watch videos online, on almost any topic you can imagine. It's a popular place for entertainment and learning. You can even upload and share your own videos. Here are some ideas of things you can search for on YouTube:

- Music from a specific decade
- Easy family recipes
- Cute animal videos
- Exercise and fitness routines

Reading books

Digital books, also called 'ebooks' make it easy to read without needing to visit a library or carrying physical books around. There are thousands of books online, and many are free. It's also a good way to find books in many different languages. You can read them using a dedicated app or just use your internet browser. Your local library may have an online lending service for ebooks. Here are some other websites to consider:

Many Books (manybooks.net) has 50,000 free modern and classic books.
Project Gutenberg (gutenberg.org) is an online library of more than 75,000 free classic books and texts.
